

Newsletter 2019

A word from the President – Matthias Kern

Dear members of the IADR Prosthodontic Group
Dear colleagues and friends, only a few weeks, and then we will get together at the IADR General Session in Vancouver, Canada. Little time left to prepare your trip and presentations and - equally important - to arrange for meetings with friends and colleagues. Please plan also to come to the Business meeting of the Prosthodontics Group, to which you have subscribed. This time, I prepared a little gift for those who are attending our Business meeting (you can see the prototype of this gift attached to the lapel of my jacket). We will also introduce the candidates for the next election of the Vice-President, which takes place in fall 2019.

A big thank goes again to our Vice-President Joke Duyck and the abstract reviewers who did a great job in reviewing over 150 abstracts and allocating them to 5 oral and 6 poster sessions.

We have 3 Lunch & Learn sessions and 3 symposia, which have been put together in collaboration and co-sponsoring by other groups. These sessions are not dedicated to original research data, but rather provide an overview on the available evidence in a chosen scientific field. Independent sponsoring was obtained, and is greatly acknowledged during the sessions. In addition, we will have a joint satellite symposium of the IADR Geriatric and Prosthodontic groups on Geriatric Oral Health Assessment which will take place already on Monday, June 17, 2019, at UBC Robson Square Campus in Vancouver.

Many submissions have been received for the Research Awards from members of our group, an outstanding achievement reflecting the popularity of the Academic Distinctions the Prosthodontics Group has to offer amongst young researchers. Please come to attend the Business meeting, during which these Awards will be attributed to the winners. Your presence will make them proud, and encourage the next generation of prosthodontists to follow the academic path. The joint reception with the implant research group is an excellent opportunity for everybody to “network”, meet old friends and make new ones, and to exchange ideas and experience in the prosthodontic area.

Overview of our activities during the IADR in Vancouver (thanks Joke Duyck for preparing this!)
